Where: Polish Hall: 3832 N. Interstate Ave. Portland, OR

Joyride:

We're four friends who enjoy playing music together for contra dancers. Joyride has been playing for first Wednesday dances since October, 2006 and it's been a wonderful trip with our loyal Portland fans. You can read about each of us at our web site (see below) and see our schedule of upcoming events there as well. We'd love to see you at the Polish Hall on first Wednesdays.

Our caller:

Noah Grunzweig will call with Joyride on October 2. It's been several years since we've done a gig with Noah and we're looking forward to that. Noah produces and calls the Portland Contra Remix series which has achieved quite a following over the years. Although Noah will be working with a more traditional sound from Joyride than his accustomed techno recordings, he'll bring his familiar laid-back and friendly style as he leads us through an evening of fun contra dances. Join us as we welcome Noah to the Joyride stage.

Covid Protocol:

Masks are optional for dancers and performers alike.

Proof of vaccination is not required for entry to the event.

You will not need to provide contact information and sign a waiver.

In other words, at this time, attending the first Wednesday contra dance will be the same as in pre-covid years with the exception that wearing a mask for self-protection is encouraged for those who wish to do so. Please respect others' choices with regard to wearing or not wearing masks without judgment or prejudice.
